Scope

Description

NLFT requires a musician in residence to attend HMP Pentonville in person for 2 full days per week to provide music sessions that focus on but not limited to:

- Live music
- Instrument learning
- Music appreciation
- Song writing and performance

The chosen supplier must showcase they are successful in engaging in and increasing the motivation of hard-to-reach individuals including those accessing mental health/substance misuse services and those who don't engage effectively with the more traditional educational activities.

The provider should offer professional musicians who hold a range of appropriate qualifications, degrees and additional training, have access to support, including annual training sessions and supervision from their organisation.
