II.1.4) Short description

Sheffield Hallam University recently launched the MSc Global Financial Trading course. This course builds on the success of our BSc Financial Trading and Investment Management course launched in 2018. In May 2022 we intend to procure those trading education services for both our undergraduate and postgraduate courses. Our aim is to contract with a supplier who can deliver a financial trading qualification at both Level 5 and Level 7. Both qualifications will form 30 credit modules in the respective undergraduate and postgraduate courses mentioned above. We will be seeking a supplier who can demonstrate significant professional experience of financial markets trading and who is also able to offer accredited qualifications at the appropriate level and depth. Our courses typically comprise of a mix of UK and International students. Accordingly, we are keen that potential suppliers can demonstrate experience of teaching international students and are able to meet all UK regulatory requirements necessary to teach international students studying in the UK.

This notice has been released to provide the maximum time for the market to consider its preparedness for this opportunity.
