II.1.4) Short description

Hillingdon are seeking experienced and creative Family Group Conference (FGC) service providers to participate in a competitive tender exercise.

In Hillingdon, the use of FGC services has been successful in ensuring permanency for children within their families.

We want our long-standing use of family group conferencing to continue to effectively avoid children and young people having to leave their homes or their family when it is safe for them to remain. We seek a provider who can work with us to ensure the approach goes beyond family meetings and becomes a dynamic and responsive service centered on creating the supportive networks which are a central part of Family Help.
