Section VI. Complementary information

VI.3) Additional information

The type of services provided through the framework, lend themselves to be in accord with the Light Touch Regime Procurement Regulations, and therefore notice is hereby given, that the authority (The East of England NHS Collaborative Procurement Hub — EOECPH) reserves the right to re-open the procurement process for the framework at least once per year, giving notice of the month of re-opening, through recognised pathways, that when EOECPH re-opens competition the EOECPH will only be at liberty to produce and issue the suite of tender documents contained within the ITT documents that will be published for the framework for the provision of dermatology services. By way of further clarity, the purpose for this additional information is to put on notice that the EOECPH is aware that the above statement of fact will enable EOECPH to capture and appoint new providers to the framework agreement.
