Scope

Reference

NSC-0449-25

Description

North Somerset Council is keen to hear from organisations that would be interested in delivering a domestic abuse support service for local survivors and children.

The aim of this service is to deliver interventions for victims/survivors and increase awareness of domestic abuse within communities and with professionals.

As part of this process North Somerset Council would like to hear views from a range of market providers about the future options and are inviting organisations to attend a market engagement event. It is anticipated that any new arrangements would commence on 1st April 2026.
