II.1.4) Short description

The Industrial Energy Efficiency Accelerator (IEEA) aims to accelerate close to market industrial efficiency innovations, improve their commercialisation potential and encourage wider roll-out. It will support the development and on-site demonstration of innovative industrial efficiency technology with grant funding. BEIS is procuring a delivery partner for the programme who will be expected to develop the delivery plan, advertise the competition and engage with stakeholders, manage the delivery of the demonstration grant funded projects including engineering support, provide incubation services to accelerate commercialisation, gather information for evaluation, and develop materials to promote and disseminate information and technologies from the IEEA.
