II.1.4) Short description

The Scottish Procurement and Property Directorate (SPPD) is the organisation tasked with procuring frameworks and contracts on behalf of Scottish public sector bodies. The current collaborative Banking Services Framework will expire on 31 July 2022.

Work has commenced in developing the procurement strategy options including canvassing of stakeholders' views. In order to complete and finalise the strategy, SPPD recognises the value of suppliers having the opportunity to contribute to this process on a non-competitive, non-judgemental basis. This request for information is aimed at collating those views from market participants. This information may be utilised in developing the procurement strategy to help deliver contractual arrangements for the banking services requirements. The current framework statement of requirements and pricing schedule are attached for information purposes.

SPPD is using Questback to collate responses. Suppliers and other interested parties should read and complete the Request for Information Online Questionnaire using the link below:

<https://response.questback.com/scottishgovernment/2bfavujih7>

The questionnaire will be available for all interested parties until 31 August 2021.
