II.1.4) Short description

The Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead (RBWM) is recommissioning the Support Services for Rough Sleepers.

RBWM experiences a relatively higher level of rough sleeping than other non-London boroughs in the southeast.

Currently, all rough sleepers (Service Users) assisted by RBWM are housed in the private rented sector in accommodation facilitated by RBWM. Support beyond basic core tenancy management, is provided by an external floating support service.

The floating support service is required for the current cohort of Service Users in the private rented sector and any referred to the service during the course of the contract. The core tasks of the Contractor shall be to deliver efficient tenancy, life skills and other appropriate support to enable former rough sleepers to maintain their accommodation and to develop their ability to live more independently in the private rented or social sectors.
