II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The Police and Crime Commissioner for Dorset may soon be looking to outsource a Supplier to deliver Independent Domestic Violence Advisor (IDVA) Services for High-Risk victims of abuse across Dorset.

The services will be predominantly for individuals aged 16 years and over but will also provide support for individuals aged 15 years and under, in partnership with other agencies.

The successful Contractor will be required to work in close partnership with other relevant Services as part of a whole system response to Domestic Abuse and to support overall Service delivery. The service will form part of a whole system response to domestic abuse, including identification, referral and triage of victims. Providing support to victims and associated victims (i.e. children), supporting the Multi-Agency Risk Assessment Conference (MARAC) and High Risk Domestic Abuse (HRDA) process, and post intervention step down or recovery.

The service will also engage with processes surrounding perpetrators of domestic abuse, such as at the High Harm Perpetrator Panel (HHPP) to further support the safeguarding of the victim and to reduce the risk to the victim of future abuse.

The successful Contractor will be required to work in close partnership with other relevant Services to support overall Service delivery.

The Commissioner is seeking an organisation that will effectively deliver this contract but also work as a key partner helping shape the region's approach to Domestic Abuse.
