II.1.4) Short description

Folkestone Academy is proposing to develop a permanent outdoor classroom to complement our horticulture provision. The outdoor classroom will become the horticulture centre and allow for all weather and all year teaching of environmental science and horticulture. We also see the horticulture building as a training centre for primary staff from our trust and feeder schools.

The building specification is to be of a contemporary classroom building with strong elements of architectural design. The pitched roof design with vaulted side windows will promote growing in the classroom practical stations and accommodate 30 pupils.

This project will be a critical element in FA becoming a flagship ECO school and leading on this educational initiative across the town.
