Suppliers are advised to allow adequate time for uploading documents and to dispatch the electronic response well in advance of the closing time to avoid any last minute problems.

The Contracting Authority does not intend to include a sub-contract clause as part of community benefits (as per Section 25 of the Procurement Reform (Scotland) Act 2014) in this contract for the following reason:

This is a health and social care contract and sub contracting is not applicable.

Community benefits are included in this requirement. For more information see:

<https://www.gov.scot/policies/public-sector-procurement/community-benefits-in-procurement/>

A summary of the expected community benefits has been provided as follows:

NHS Ayrshire and Arran ask that all bidders consider any Community Benefits, directly linked with the core purpose of this contract, and these should be detailed as part of bidders response. Bidders should demonstrate if they would propose to deliver any social, economic benefits during the term of the Contract, however, this element of the ITT will not be scored but any appropriate proposals will be discussed with the successful supplier.
