We would like to add an area of the website under the working title of a “Knowledge Bank” (name TBC). On this section of the website, we want to host a library of content which covers various topics of the cyber security industry for those interested in finding out more.

The Knowledge Bank will be an area which a site visitor can peruse through slideshows, supporting video content from subject matter experts, and links out to related videos on our YouTube channel. We already have all of this content. We are looking for an agency who can help us with: Web development and design - Creating the area on our website (WordPress); Uploading our content into the relevant topic areas of the Knowledge Bank; Revise our YouTube content (and potentially edit where necessary) and tag relevant videos to the related topic in the Knowledge Bank; Create a ‘register interest’ link against each topic in the Knowledge Bank so that a site visitor can request to speak with one of our members who is an expert on such topic. Ideally, we would like this to integrate with our CRM system eventually, however there have been delays in getting the CRM implemented.
