Description

East Sussex County Council (ESCC) requires Translation and Interpreting Services in order to meet our commitment to delivering accessible services and help towards meeting some of the needs of the diverse communities within the county.

ESCC currently acts as lead Authority for the 'SUSTI Framework' (Sussex Translation & Interpreting) which is accessed by CCGs (Clinical Commissioning Groups), NHS organisations, West Sussex County Council (WSCC), Surrey County Council (SCC), Brighton and Hove City Council (BHCC) along with District & Borough Councils across East and West Sussex and Surrey.

The current Framework ends 31st December 2025. The service wishes to let a replacement framework to ensure that there is continuation of service provision and delivery.

Legal advice and support have been sought to include, but is not limited to:

- Consideration of changes to the associated Framework and call-off Terms and Conditions;
- support with invitation to tender;
- advice on the Framework structure;
- advice on Access Agreements (whether they are needed and how they are executed);

advice on potential use of competitive flexible procedure under new Procurement Act 2023

This will be a multi-supplier framework. the proposed Lot structure at present, to be agreed once preliminary market engagement has taken place is:

- Lot 1. Spoken Language - remote (telephone/video) and face-to-face
- Lot 2. Non-Spoken Languages (eg: British Sign Language) - remote (video) and face-to-face
- Lot 3. Translation, Transcription and Ancillary Services
