Award decision-maker:

Dr. Sakthi Karunanithi MBBS M.D. MPH FFPH, Director of Public Health, Lancashire County Council

Key Criteria:

key criteria 1. Quality and innovation - Weighting 20%. The relative importance is due to the requirement for clinical competency of staff. 'False positive' results will measure the quality of the service.

key criteria 2. Value - Weighting 30%. The relative importance is due to Lancashire County Council having a duty to achieve value for money.

key criteria 3. Integration, collaboration and service sustainability - Weighting 20%. The relative importance is due to the need for the Provider to work seamlessly with Community Orthoptists, families and schools.

key criteria 4. Improving access, reducing health inequalities and facilitating choice - Weighting 20%. The relative importance is due to the requirement for all eligible children to access the service easily and equitably.

key criteria 5. Social value - Weighting 10%. The relative importance is due to the Lancashire County Council Social Value policy requirement to include at least 10% weighting for social value.

Rationale for choosing the provider:

The relevant authority (Lancashire County Council) is of the view that the existing provider is satisfying the existing contract and will likely satisfy the proposed contract to a sufficient standard taking into account the key criteria and applying the basic selection criteria.
