Written representations should be sent to Phillip.Simmons@nhs.net

Details of the award decision-makers are Sonia Wadley and Karen Phillips.

The relative importance of the key criteria that the relevant authority used to make a decision, the rationale for the relative importance of the key criteria, and the rationale for choosing the provider with reference to the key criteria are listed below:

The incumbent provider was assessed against the key and basic criteria and scored by pass/fail. Each criteria was assigned an equal weighting, none more so than the other. It was felt all the criteria was classified as a critical success factor to the Trust, which led to the decision of equal weightings.
