The contract is intended to provide advocacy, practical and emotional support to victims and survivors of domestic abuse in London, in all their diversity, to help them cope and recover from their experiences. The service will be expected to work with other victim support services commissioned by MOPAC as part of an Ecosystem of support services across London that will champion trusted relationships and collaboration across services. This Ecosystem will also support the balance of specialist and by and for provision alongside robust and resilient pan-London services to effectively support victims from London's diverse communities. The service will be required to maintain a core relationship with the central referral mechanism that will be provided by the London Victim and Witness General Adults Service.

II.2.14) Additional information

The service is expected to deliver to an agreed set of outcomes and share knowledge, skills and capabilities to support the continuous development and efficiency of the ecosystem. MOPAC and partners within the Ecosystem will also work closely with the Metropolitan Police Service to support efforts to improve victims' experience of the Criminal Justice System.
