II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The Authority completed an extensive programme of internal refurbishment works between 2008 and 2013 that successfully brought the housing stock up to a condition that met the Welsh Housing Quality Standard ('the WHQS'). Kitchens fitted as part of that programme have started to reach the end of their 15 year lifecycle as defined by the WHQS. Those installed in 2008/09 are due to be replaced from 2024/25 with the remainder to follow over the next five to seven years. The scope of work required to meet the standards set out in the new WHQS ('the WHQS 2023') will focus primarily on kitchen replacements but will include some bathrooms on an as required basis, general electrical upgrades, humidity fans in kitchens and bathrooms, the installation of Positive Input Ventilation ('PIV') systems where none are currently fitted, and some heating upgrades. Works will be allocated to two geographical areas. The Authority will appoint one Contractor for each Area. No Contractor will be awarded more than one Area.
