II.1.4) Short description

North East Lincolnshire Council (The Authority) is looking for a Provider to deliver resourced, specialist provision for children at risk of exclusion.

The Provider shall provide a supportive educational environment for local primary-aged children with Social, Emotional and Mental Health (SEMH) difficulties who are both at risk of exclusion from mainstream education or have already been excluded. For young people with SEMH difficulties that have been excluded, the Provider will help deliver a smooth transition back into mainstream education. The Authority also aims to ensure that children are helped to do this within the local area. Accordingly, children using the service will not be required to travel outside of the borough of North East Lincolnshire and the Provider shall ensure the service is delivered within a primary school/academy site within North East Lincolnshire.

The children referred to this provision will be of primary school age, which is from Reception to Year 6 inclusive.
