Bromley IRIS (Identification and Referral to Improve Safety) Service.

NHS South East London ICB (SEL ICB) is seeking to commission Bromley IRIS (Identification and Referral to Improve Safety) Service.

The service provides education and training to general practice on how to identify and appropriately refer potential victims of domestic abuse, following the recognised evidence-based IRIS model. The service also receives referrals categorised as low risk and provides support to victims of domestic abuse.

This service consists of the continued delivery of Domestic Abuse training and support for all GP practices and Primary Care Network (PCN) staff in Bromley in accordance with the IRIS (Identification and Referral to Improve Safety) model of DA Training delivery to Primary Care, for the 3 years from 1/3/24 to 31/3/27 (with the option to extend for an additional 2 years).

The service will be offered at the premises of participating GP practices, or remotely, as required.

The estimated total contract value is £575,000.00. The Contract will be for 3 years with the possibility of an extension for a further 2 years at the discretion of the ICB. The service is expected to commence in March 2024.

Please refer to the service specification document for further information on the service.

The Bromley IRIS service has been in place since April 2018, delivering education and training to Bromley GP practices on identification and appropriate referral of victims of Domestic abuse (DA).
