II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The core project objective is to consistently monitor testing and training centres to provide CITB with assurance that those centres are operating and following the scheme rules for each product and are delivering the customer experience CITB expects.

This includes customer service, processes and issues candidates face across the whole testing experience from booking to completing the test/course.

These mystery shops are required in order to:

- measure key customer service levels
- monitor performance from the point a booking is made, either by phone or online, through to completing a test
- provide an immediate escalated alert mechanism for non-compliance in specifically selected key areas.

This will require the services of an experienced, professional organisation to deliver a robust, managed, mystery shop program.
