II.1.4) Short description

We are seeking to purchase a range of Alternative Provision programmes. These should be delivered through interventions from potential suppliers which will assist referred pupils' academic, social, and emotional development. Programmes should meet the needs of the learners and will be designed to deliver appropriate experiences, skills acquisition, and the undertaking of relevant outcomes as co-determined with the referring school or agency. The programmes will vary where appropriate as AP delivers short term interventions which are supported by school for the remainder of the week, as AP cannot deliver all or substantially all of a pupil's education. The AP will provide learning opportunities in the form of short-term interventions with mapped and clearly agreed opportunities for learning in collaboration with the school.
