II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Stafford Borough Council are seeking to appoint a single multi-disciplinary team to work with them to drive delivery of the proposed mixed-use scheme from inception to completion.

It is expected that the team appointed will provide all technical professional services to support the Council to deliver the scheme from reviewing, refining and agreeing the brief, through initial design, securing planning permission, contractor engagement and appointment, construction and on to handover, final account and the end of the defects liability period. It is expected that this professional team will include expertise in Project, Cost and Contract Management, Development, Planning, Design, Engineering, and the Environment sufficient to deliver the project.

The current expectation is that the appointed team will develop the design to secure planning permission before/in parallel with engaging with a design and build contractor on a design and build contract. It is assumed that a JCT or similar standard form of contract with limited common amendments is most likely to be adopted. This approach should be reviewed by the appointed team at commencement but is the basis on which tender responses should be made and will be assessed.

VI.4.3) Review procedure

Precise information on deadline(s) for review procedures

The Contracting Authority will incorporate a minimum 10 calendar day standstill period (or 15 days where non-electronic or fax methods are used) at the point that an award decision notice is communicated to tenderers.

The award decision process will specify the criteria for the award of the contract/framework agreement, the reasons for the decision, including the characteristics and relative advantages, the name and score of the successful tender, and will specify when the standstill period is expected to end or the date before which the Contracting Authority will not conclude the contract.

If an appeal regarding the award of a contract has not been successfully resolved, the Public Contracts Regulations 2015 provide for aggrieved parties who have been harmed or are at risk of a breach of the rules to take action in the High Court (England, Wales and Northern Ireland).

Any such action must be brought promptly (generally within 3 months). The Court may order the setting aside of the award decision or may order the Contracting Authority to amend any document and may award damages.

If an agreement has been entered into the Court may make a declaration of ineffectiveness or may order that the duration of any relevant specific contract be shortened and additionally may award damages.

The time limit for seeking such a declaration is generally 30 days from notification of the award (either by award decision notification or contract award notice depending upon the circumstances) or otherwise 6 months.
