Prior to starting any procurement activity, the Council is inviting organisations who have an interest in, and experience of, delivering such services to an online market engagement event to consider :-

- what innovative methods of delivery could be considered
- what potential providers see as areas of risk
- what (if anything) would stop interested parties applying for this business opportunity, prior to a contract notice being issued and applications being invited.

This is an opportunity to influence and shape the future delivery of the scheme. Engagement will consist of an online event as well as a Soft Market Questionnaire which we encourage interested organisations to complete. Information gathered, and feedback supplied, will help shape the proposed future procurement.
