A summary of the expected community benefits has been provided as follows:

8. Community Benefits

8.1 The Scottish Government is committed to contributing to the social, economic and environmental well-being of the people of Scotland. The Scottish Ministers has a range of national outcomes that underpin its core purpose: To focus on creating a more successful country, with opportunities for all of Scotland to flourish, through sustainable and inclusive economic growth.

8.2 Accordingly, there is a requirement to demonstrate commitment to these objectives in the form of a Community Benefits Proposal, which will be performed on a cost –neutral basis.

8.3 Proposals must compliment the main purpose of the Contract and be proportionate to the contract value.

8.4 Community benefits are measures which address challenges faced by this community to improve the economic, social or environmental wellbeing in a way that enriches the affected community therefore contributing to Scotland's National Outcomes. For example:

- We grow up loved, safe and respected so that we realise our full potential
- We live in communities that are inclusive, empowered, resilient and safe
- We are well educated, skilled and able to contribute to society
- We respect, protect and fulfil human rights and live free from discrimination
- We tackle poverty by sharing opportunities, wealth and power more equally
- Examples of Community Benefit categories could be: targeted employment support, recruitment and work-related training for priority groups within the community (for example long-term unemployed and young people) as part of your proposed workforce for this project;
- support for existing Charity and Third Sector Organisations that deliver benefits to the communities
- Use of SMEs or supported businesses as part of your supply chain
- up-skilling the existing workforce;
- equality and diversity initiatives;
- educational support initiatives.

Note: This list is not exhaustive.
