II.1.4) Short description

Moray Council is leading the redevelopment of the 'Grade B listed' Elgin Town Hall and forms part of the overarching Cultural Quarter project.

The building is currently a thriving multi-use venue which hosts community events and touring acts. The existing auditorium is capable of hosting 550 patrons.

The redevelopment provides a complete reconfiguration and refurbishment of the existing building and performance spaces with new specialist and state-of-the-art technical infrastructure complete with stage engineering, stage lighting and audio visual systems.

The building will have a new inviting and modern-day foyer and entrance plaza added to the current north east elevation.

A new build extension is also allowed to the rear of the existing building which will provide a new 90 seat studio theatre with support accommodation.
