II.1.4) Short description

Invitation to Market Engagement Event – Domestic Abuse (DA) and Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG) Provision.

The London Borough of Lewisham is seeking to commission an integrated DA and VAWG service that offers a mix of support and advocacy, early intervention, group work, partnership work, and safe accommodation provision.

As part of the commissioning process, Lewisham Council will be hosting two market engagement virtual events, which aim to briefly explain the requirements of the service Lewisham seek to commission, as well as providing organisations with an opportunity to ask any questions. This exercise is not a call for competition but engagement with the market to help inform our procurement approach.

Participation or non-participation in this market exercise shall not prevent any organisation participating in any potential procurement process nor is it intended that any information supplied shall place any organisation at an advantage in any forthcoming procurement process.
