II.1.4) Short description

Bath & North East Somerset Council have been strategically reviewing our care and support services for children and young people with additional needs.

We wish to work in collaboration with our care providers in selecting the most effective commissioning model to implement and are holding a Market Engagement event.

This event will focus on the care and support needs of children and young people with additional needs within B&NES, the current market position, challenges, our spend and developing a sustainable approach for all.

Confirmation regarding a procurement process will follow, dates will be provided once the commissioning approach is finalised.

The event will take place on Tuesday 21st September 2021, 1pm -2pm on Microsoft Teams.

Please register your interest in attending this event via Eventbrite:
