The Mental Health Supported Living in Tile House (Intensive) Service offers accommodation and support for adults with serious mental illness (SMI) and complex needs who have lost their tenancies or are unable to live independently, bridging the gap between long stay in hospital and independent living. Explanation:

The Authority has seven mental health supported living services which includes the Mental Health Supported Living in Tile House (Intensive) service. The intention was to develop a Mental Health Accommodation Strategy which would inform further commissioning priorities for the mental health supported living services in Camden. The development of this strategy was delayed due to the COVID-19 pandemic with the Authority prioritising the delivery of safe frontline services in a covid secure way thereby protecting both service users and frontline staff.

The current service is delivered in Tile House in Camden which provides 15 high quality self-contained flats suitable for this client group. The property is owned by the incumbent provider who is not prepared to allow a third party to deliver the service from the property. This is also the only service in the Council's Mental Health Adult Pathway that provides mental health intensive support to its residents by sub contracting aspects of their delivery to Camden and Islington Foundation Trust. The Authority does not have properties of this type available in Camden therefore not directly awarding this contract to the incumbent provider would mean a loss of a vital service to residents living in Camden.

A Mental Health Accommodation Strategy is being developed which will inform future provision in Camden which may resolve the issue long term.
