T25-076BUS Supply of Video Services - Restricted List Application

Description

Derry City and Strabane District Council (the Council) is seeking to appoint six professional and creative video service providers for an annual video service restricted list. The Council has various projects and events that require high-quality video production and editing. The successful candidates will have proven experience in delivering video services for public sector organisations and will be able to meet the council's standards and expectations. The Council invites six qualified and skilled video service providers to collaborate with Councils marketing team for the year. The six candidates selected for Council's restricted list will have passed stage 1 and scored the highest in stage 2. These six candidates will get chances to bid for future video projects that the Council may need during the year. Award criteria for each project will be specified in quotation/tender brief. The video services required by Council will cover various festival and events, Council services, activities, and funded projects. The video service providers will be responsible for filming, editing and delivering high-quality videos that showcase the Council's work and achievements. Your submission must be submitted via etendersNI, via this CFT. No other method of submissions will be accepted. Please refer to the CfT documents for further detail.
