Scope

Description

Havering is seeking a provider for the Living Well Community Wellness & Empowerment Service, aimed at enhancing the quality of life for adults 18+. This service will address physical, social, and environmental needs through tailored exercise programmes focused on overall wellness, diverse social engagement activities, and 1:1 support.

- Key objectives include:
- Promoting overall wellness
- Encouraging social inclusion
- Offering employment support

Providing educational workshops on health literacy, financial planning, and technology use

We envision a collaborative partnership with specialist providers to ensure an integrated approach that maximises the effectiveness and reach of the programme. This cohesive strategy will enable us to deliver comprehensive services to residents, leveraging shared resources and expertise.

Interested providers are invited to demonstrate their capability to deliver these services effectively and to collaborate in forming strategic partnerships that will benefit the community.
