II.1.4) Short description

Sheffield City Council is conducting this second soft market test as precursor to a formal procurement process and approach to the market. We will be looking to appoint a number of providers for the provision of a Care and Wellbeing Service Transformational Contract (Homecare) to commence in 2023. There will be a formal tender competition to appoint successful provider(s) following on from this exercise in due course; the purpose of this soft market test is to consult with the market on our Draft Specification. This is an opportunity to comment on the Specification before it is released to Market as part of the formal Tender Exercise.
