Description

The Living Well at Home (LWAH) service is a comprehensive framework developed by Oxfordshire County Council to commission home care, reablement, and extra care housing services. It focuses on supporting adults in their own homes, emphasizing wellbeing, independence, and safety. The framework may include different partnership tiers: Strategic Partners, Zonal Partners, and Accredited Partners, each with specific roles and responsibilities. The service will aim to improve the quality of care through a whole system approach, integrating local health and social services.
