Description

This opportunity is for the engagement of a competent, experienced contractor to undertake the work required to address a longstanding issue with rainwater ingress affecting the Dolche Vita restaurant, Keynes College, Canterbury campus. A detailed survey has determined a solution described in the drawings appended to this document, but includes: The removal of existing windows and doors, the installation of cavity trays, lintels, and replacement windows; making good of internal walls and ceilings affected by the works. Keynes College is located in the centre of the University's Canterbury Campus and the surrounding buildings will remain active throughout the course of the works. The restaurant will be in use during the contract period and therefore working hours affecting the interior will be restricted. The work shall be carried out between Monday 16th June 2025 and Friday 28th July 2025.
