THIS IS NOT A CALL FOR COMPETITION

Staffordshire County Council are re-commissioning care home provision in the county and would like to engage with the care home market (those currently contracted and the wider market).

Responses to this survey will feed directly into, and influence, the decision-making processes that will form the new contracts and so is integral to the future direction of care home provision for the residents of Staffordshire. We encourage you to complete the survey to ensure your organisation has an opportunity to contribute towards a vibrant and sustainable market. We appreciate your time and effort in engaging with the Council, working in collaboration to achieve the best outcomes for your residents.

There will be further communications based on the outcomes of this survey in the Autumn of 2024.
