Scope

Description

Northamptonshire Children's Trust (NCT) would like to invite prospective providers to complete a survey in preparation for a procurement opportunity for NCT - Personal Care and Support services (PCaS) to Children and Young People with Disabilities.

As NCT prepare to reprocore the framework for these essential services, your insights and feedback are crucial to ensuring that the new framework meets the needs of both providers and children effectively.

About the Framework

The previous framework, established under the 2020 Personal Care and Support services (PCaS) Framework contract, has been instrumental in providing high-quality care to children and young people. As we move forward, we aim to enhance the new framework by incorporating your valuable experiences and suggestions. This will help the Trust create a more responsive, efficient, and supportive system for all stakeholders involved.

Please take a few moments to complete the survey in the link below. Your feedback will directly influence the development of the new framework, ensuring it is tailored to meet the evolving needs of our community.
