PR 2024 114

Description

The CPS requires a full range of Occupational Health and Employee Assistance services, . This enables us to identify necessary adjustments to assist our staff, improve their ability to work in good health, and fulfil our legal obligations.

This procurement is likely to be awarded under a PCR Framework Agreement but a pipeline notice is being published for transparency purposes. Once a contract has been awarded under a PCR Framework Agreement, a Procurement Termination Notice will be published to remove this Pipeline Notice and notify the market of Contract Award.
