VI.4.3) Review procedure

Precise information on deadline(s) for review procedures

Suffolk County Council (SCC) incorporates a minimum 8 working day standstill period which begins on the day after the notice of intention to award or conclude is published and, unless a written representation is made, ends at midnight of the eighth working day after the day the standstill period begins. If any representations are received during this period, then the standstill period will remain open until we provide any requested information, consider the representations, and make a further decision. Should a provider remain unsatisfied with our response or decision, and remains of the view that the Health Care Services (Provider Selection Regime) Regulations 2023 have not been applied correctly, the provider may submit a further representation to the Independent Patient Choice and Procurement Panel within 5 working days of our decision.
