II.1.4) Short description

A multi-year strategic marketing campaign which supports Cardiff University and our aims to grow international numbers by implementing and managing marketing activity to generate interest, awareness and enquiries into IDP offices from key markets. This activity is part of a wider institutional objective to shape the international student cohort and diversify away from the 'traditional' markets that Cardiff is currently strong in.

Agent counsellors support these enquiries to make applications to the University, and subsequently enrol.

Services include:

- Media marketing
- Social media marketing
- Advertising
- Content creation and delivery
- Network engagement
- Client success sessions

- Client reporting, analysis and recommendations

This managed service will complete the pipeline for students subsequently enrolling. It provides the opportunity to have a complete pipeline with one organisation.
