II.1.4) Short description

The Police and Crime Commissioner for Hampshire and Isle of Wight (the OPCC) has invited applications from suitably experienced organisations who wish to tender for the provision of water quality services.

The OPCC was seeking one contractor to undertake water sampling and water system risk assessments across their estate in Hampshire and the Isle of Wight. The arrangement would support the OPCC to manage their duties in relation to water hygiene under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974.

The contract was due to commence on 2 January 2024 and was to be for a period of 2 years, with the option to extend for an additional period of up to 2 years.

It is in the public interest to abandon this process due to a reassessment of the requirements for this service by our stakeholders. In order to ensure that we are able to obtain best value for the public purse, we have taken the decision to remodel the procurement. It is our intention to relaunch this in the very near future following the receipt of updated requirements.
