In some cases staff require 'moving and handling' training to assist with hoisting individuals in and out of bed and into their wheelchair or mobility device.

Customers live in their own homes, often with one or two other people although there can be up to five that share. We also have clusters of up to eight flats where individuals live in their own self contained property but there is also an office and common room. Peabody are not always the landlord for these customers and we work with a variety of other social landlords.

Although we have some shorter visits the majority of the customers require staff to be in their home 24 hours per day with a mixture early shifts, late shifts and either waking night or sleep in cover depending on the service. This part of the business employs approximately 250 permanent staff.

Our Essex Outreach service is also included in this lot and has a staff team of 100 people who visit customers in the community.
