II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Sheffield Hallam University intends to appoint a single company/individual to provide a Programme Alliance Manager (PAM) to the Alliance.

The Hallam Alliance was formed nearly two years ago with the intention of developing a better way of working for all parties concerned; a way of working that benefits all partners, improves collaboration, pro-actively solves problems, and delivers exceptional performance across all areas, providing well designed, well-built and well managed buildings for the benefit of the University's many stakeholders.

The Alliance will be entering a critical next phase of delivery over the next 6 months with works further ramping up. £110m of investment is planned to commence on site in January 2022 and a further £60m of new development planned to commence the early stages of development.

A successful Programme Alliance Manager will ensure that there is full Programme Alliance Board oversight of the performance of all schemes, maintaining the high-level programme and ensuring that programme wide risks and issues are identified, managed and mitigated.

Key to success of the alliance is leading on collaborative behaviours. The PAM will need to both role model these and support Programme Alliance Board members in driving effective behaviours and performance across the Alliance and their respective teams.
