II.1.4) Short description

This is the pre-qualification questionnaire for the appointment of a contractor to carry out construction work New Offices in Sierra Leone please see below the following background information.

The current Freetown estate accommodates FCDO, MOD and PHE across three separate compounds in Freetown. These compounds are in various states of repair and the two lower compounds - British High Commission (BHC) and the existing DFID Offices (now known as the Development Office) - have security deficiencies and health and safety concerns. Combining all PAGs within a single building on the third compound, Leicester Square Compound (LSC), provides long term OneHMG business efficiencies in Sierra Leone, alongside safe and compliant accommodation with improved security.

Leicester Square Compound (LSC) contains former military training offices and is now predominantly used as a residential compound.
