II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Staffordshire County Council is considering the feasibility of a Joint Venture enterprise with a developer for the purposes of developing two Care Homes in the County of Staffordshire (Tamworth and Lichfield) to deliver Nursing Care provision.

The Joint Venture will result in a development of two 70 bed new build Care Homes. This is to gauge market interest in this approach and is only seeking a contractor at this time, the Council intends to undergo a secondary commissioning exercise to seek a partner for the care provision.

It is intended that this service solution will allow the Council to achieve cost effective placements for individuals with nursing needs and also improve the Council's ability to place efficiently.

There may be a number of sites with differing mobilisation dates.
