The UK Sports Institute (UKSI) is seeking to appoint one supplier to provide a contract for mobile voice, data and SMS services for 36 months to its 400 employees.

The supplier will need to:

1. Provide connections for all employees.
2. Offer solutions for allocating individual user data thresholds, and capping of data use when tethering or roaming
3. Provide ongoing technical and customer services support throughout the contract under a Service Level Agreement
4. Provide a clear charging structure with an online billing portal; the portal must have an easy to use facility to analyse summary and detailed breakdowns of billing
5. The billing portal should permit administrators and managers to view the details of staff who report to them, eg. the Finance manager should be able to see usage details of the Finance team members
6. Offer an easy to use, simple to administer and cost effective roaming solution for staff who are overseas
7. Provide WiFi calling.
8. Offer a Tech Fund for the purchase of extra kit. Note that handsets are not required to be provided under this contract. UKSI owns its devices which are iPhone8 , SE (2020) and iPhone 12.

The UKSI pioneers the delivery of science, medicine, and technology services to drive medal success at Olympic, Paralympic and international competition, supporting elite athletes through its nationwide network of expertise and facilities.

It strives to be the world-leading high-performance institute. Staff are based at seven high performance centres across the UK but UKSI services are delivered at different sporting locations including swimming pools, lakes, velodromes and athletic tracks in Europe and the rest of the World.
