II.1.4) Short description

An integrated service delivery approach in custody suites between mental health specialist staff (GMMH) and police custody healthcare staff is still required. It is expected that both services will deliver person-centred care and drive an uptake of Liaison and Diversion screening.

The future custody healthcare provider will be required to collaborate with GMMH to ensure effective referral between the two services.

There will be requirements for both providers including the following:

- an ambition to utilise a shared care record
- develop shared patient safety and quality improvement plans
- participate in a joint stakeholder operational group
- develop joint training and organisation development plans
- deliver against the health and justice priorities for trauma responsive, gender-
