Section VI. Complementary information

VI.3) Additional information

Kent and Medway NHS & Social Care Partnership Trust (KMPT) is currently considering the procurement for the provision of Permanent recruitment support for senior roles (Band 9 and above). The purpose of this PIN is to inform the market of a potential upcoming requirement, as will be articulated fully within any published specification of requirements. The Trust may hold an engagement event, should there be sufficient interest in doing so. If you wish to express an interest in attending, please contact jodie.heywood2@nhs.net with the subject heading "Permanent recruitment support for senior roles". Should you have any queries in relation to this PIN or the programme generally, please do not hesitate to contact Jack Moss (Associate Director of Procurement, KMPT) on jack.moss@nhs.net or Jodie Heywood (Commercial Manager, KMPT) on jodie.heywood2@nhs.net. Please note: The Trust has not yet definitively determined whether or how to procure and/or contract for these services, nor has it determined the most appropriate route to market (including, without limitation, whether to utilise an existing market Framework agreement). The purpose of this Prior Information Notice (PIN) is to inform prospective providers of a potential intention to seek to enter into a contract(s) with a supplier(s) for the provision of these services and invite prospective suppliers to engage with the Trust.
