II.1.4) Short description

Nottinghamshire County Council is intending to procure a strategic service to lead, coordinate and represent all domestic abuse survivor voices across Nottinghamshire, amplifying their voice to policy and commissioning leads in local government (including social care), police and health services via the Local Partnership Board. Information shared to improve service development and strategic planning.

The service will listen, collate and feed back the authentic voices of survivors and their children to underpin developments and decisions on service provision and provide representation to the Local Partnership Board. This service will need to consider and engage survivors with all protected characteristics.
