To work with children and young people referred into service alongside their safe parent or where there is historic DSVA. Or where young people are referred into service in their own right with intimate partner abuse, forced marriage, honour based abuse, FGM or as a survivor of other multiple perpetration. Children and young survivors will be referred into service from existing pathways and referrals routes and partner agencies. An appropriate Domestic Abuse Stalking and Harassment Risk Indicator Checklist (DASH RIC) or equivalent will inform the level of risk for young survivors of DSVAs in their own intimate relationships, and a needs assessment will also be undertaken. To prioritise child and young survivors with high risk and high need for direct support, but to ensure all child and young survivors at all levels of risk and need are able to access programmes/ services. To work inclusively with child / young survivors and to strenuously avoid exclusion from the service or programme where possible. It is appreciated that there may be safety concerns, or that a child may not manage on a programme and a flexible approach will be the response in that situation. For each child or young person to have one support worker throughout the time the survivor is accessing support where possible. To empower children and young survivors, recognising that they may have their own priorities, whilst the service focuses on their needs.

II.2.4) Description of the procurement

To work flexibly with adult survivors over 18 in Nottingham City at all levels of risk and need, prioritising those survivors who will benefit from a therapeutic approach. Survivors will be referred into service from existing referral pathways and referral routes and partner agencies. The Domestic Abuse Stalking and Harassment Risk Indicator Checklist (DASH RIC) form or equivalent will inform the level of risk. An assessment of need will also need to be undertaken. This Service will support children and young people up to 18 (with some flexibility thereafter) requiring therapeutic support referred from refuges in Nottingham, the Sanctuary Scheme and specialist Community Based DSVA Services and the 24 hour free phone helpline. To have the policies and protocols in place to assess referrals to ensure that perpetrators and inappropriate referrals are referred elsewhere to ensure the safety of survivors, the workforce and organisation. To have robust policies and protocols in place to manage risks associated with self harming behaviours and suicidality for the benefit of survivors, workforce and the service. For one therapist to support a survivor throughout the time that the survivor is accessing support to avoid referral on within the service and to avoid where possible the re-telling of the survivors story. To avoid exclusions from the service unless there are safety concerns. To deliver a specialist therapeutic service for adult survivors over 18. To deliver a specialist therapeutic service (including creative arts) for children and young people up to 18 (with some flexibility). To focus on survivor empowerment and work to their priorities, recognising that they are the expert in their experience. Whilst being aware that they may not recognise the level of risk that the perpetrator presents and thus minimise or deny professionals concerns.
