Description

UKAEA has set up the Technology Transfer Hub (TTH) to identify opportunities for technology transfer into the wider fusion market and other sectors, and to drive the commercialisation of fusion-related technologies and knowhow for the benefit of the UK economy. This Preliminary Market Engagement (PME) is to gather information to frame an invitation to tender to set up an Open Framework catering to the TTH, including expertise to help facilitate knowledge and technology transfer, IP commercialisation and the development and validation of novel technologies.
