II.2.14) Additional information

Adult Learning Kirklees aims to develop a culture of lifelong learning in the district. We want Kirklees to be a place where the importance of learning throughout life is deep-rooted. Securing economic and social wellbeing for individuals, families and communities and businesses. Partners will work with residents to develop high quality learning opportunities which meet needs across the different stages and spheres of adult life, which contribute to economic growth, and which promote resilience, health, confidence and increased aspiration and inclusion for all.

The main purpose of the Community Learning (CL) fund is to reach disadvantaged communities and individuals, to enable them to develop new skills, participate in learning and to progress towards further learning, volunteering and/or sustainable employment. Adult Learning Kirklees supports wider government policies on localism, social justice, stronger families, digital inclusion and social mobility
